The curriculum for the ODP 101 beginner program is designed around developing the individual player; physical, psycho-social, technical and tactical components. As part of the curriculum players will have access to an online skills video library and MySoccerIQ. Both these tools will be utilized by the coaching staff prior to field sessions to help players gain a more in-depth knowledge of the techniques and tactics taught on the field.

MySoccerIQ is the new innovative and ground-breaking interactive e-learning system that teaches youth soccer players essential tactical game concepts in an age-specific and developmentally-appropriate manner and sequence. Utilizing the most up to date technology and teaching methods, MySoccerIQ provides youth soccer players with a fun, interactive, and genuinely entertaining learning experience that will give them the mental tools they need to improve their play and become the best that they can be.
